

Paris, 18th September, 2008

With Free, you can watch TV on several TV sets!

Free users will soon be able to watch different programmes with digital quality on different TV sets.

To benefit from this service, two options are proposed: the first one (€ 4.99/month) allows users to access to HD digital television on a second TV set, the second one allows in addition to this service, to benefit from a second Personal Video Recorder (€ 9.99/month).

In order to access to this new service, Free provides its subscribers with a multistation box -including a DTT tuner- which is equipped with a Freeplug (a Power Line Communication box integrated in the power supply).

With this new offer, Free allows its subscribers to freely and fully benefit from its digital television service at home.

Offer subject to conditions (cf. <http://www.free.fr/adsl/pages/television/multi-tv.html> ). Offer without time commitment: offer exclusively available to subscribers equipped with a Freebox v5 or furthers, subject to phone line eligibility, speed requirements and subject to channels authorization. This service can be ordered online by subscribers on www.free.fr after confirmation of the terms and conditions of sale valid as of 18 September 2008.

Free is an Iliad subsidiary. The Iliad Group is a major player in the French Internet access and telecommunications market via its subsidiaries Free (3,134,000 ADSL subscribers as of 30 June 2008), Onetel and Iliad Télécom (fixed telephony providers) and IFW (Wimax). The Iliad Group is listed on Euronext Paris under the ticker ILD.