17 new destinations included in the Freebox flat rate package

Unlimited calls to 87 destinations with Free's offering

True to its strategy of continuously expanding its level of service for an unchanged price (€ 29.99 per month), Free has enriched its unlimited calls to landlines offering by including calls to 17 new destinations, thereby increasing the number of destinations included in its Freebox flat rate package to 87:

South Africa	Bahrain	Bermuda	Colombia	Costa Rica
Georgia	French Guyana	India	Laos	Liechtenstein
Lithuania	Macao	Macedonia	Malta	Virgin Islands (USA)
Albania	Indonesia

Free thus enables its subscribers to call an ever greater number of destinations, which now include French Guyana and major countries such as India and South Africa, etc.

By including unlimited calls to landlines in 87 destinations, Free remains the French ADSL operator that provides the most extensive unlimited call offering to its subscribers.

This offer will be valid from 1 February 2009 for all Freebox subscribers, whether unbundled (partly or fully unbundled) or not (IP ADSL or Freebox Only).

To avail of these new countries, subscribers only have to log on to their management console (www.free.fr) and validate the new terms and conditions of sale applicable from 1 February 2009. New subscribers automatically benefit from this offer.

*Freebox offer available in Continental France, subject to phone line eligibility.
Excludes calls to short, mobile and special numbers.*

Free is an Iliad subsidiary. The Iliad Group is a major player in the French Internet access and telecommunications market via Free and Alice (4,125,000 ADSL subscribers as of 30 September 2008), Onetel and Iliad Télécom (fixed telephony providers) and IFW (Wimax). The Iliad Group is listed on Euronext Paris under the ticker ILD..
