Free launches the Free TV app, with France's largest no-cost TV offering

Free is launching Free TV, a TV offering with no contract and no subscription and available to everyone in France. It's the country's largest no-cost TV offering<sup>1</sup>. As from today, people can get the easy-to-use Free TV app to watch TV whenever and wherever they want, on their phone, tablet or smart TV.

- a catch-up service (Replay feature) covering 25,000 programs;
- Free Ciné – a catalog of more than 500 movies and 1,000 series episodes.

Free TV also unlocks freedoms through other practical features so people can watch their programs however they want, with:

- live pause and rewind; and
- start-over: restart a program from the beginning.

"Watching TV in 2025 is a real pain. First you have to download an app for each channel, then create an account on each app of every channel. We've decided to change all that. Now TV is easy. Now TV is Free!"

Xavier Niel, founder of Free.
