

Free enhances its mobile plans: 100 destinations now included

Free has once again enhanced its mobile plans by increasing the number of included landline destinations to 100, at no extra charge.

Free's mobile plans also include calls to landlines and mobiles in Metropolitan France, as well as to mobiles in the French overseas departments (DOM), the United States, Canada, Alaska, Hawaii and now China.

Among the new landline destinations are:

Europe: Croatia, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Russia

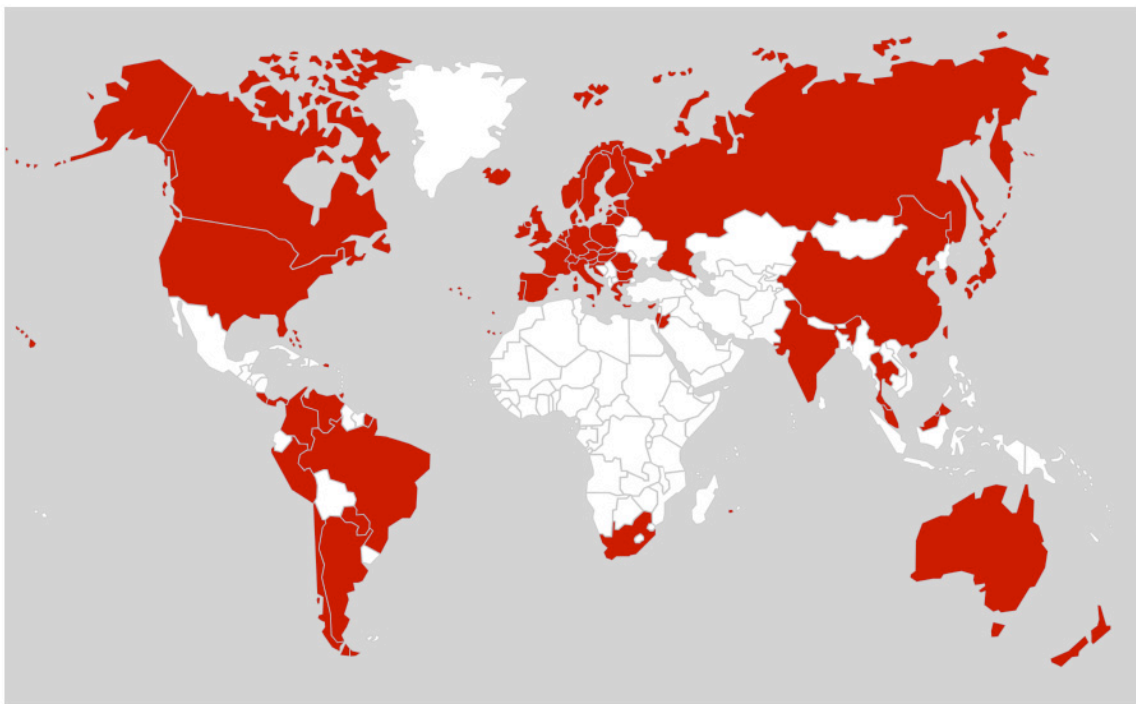

Americas: Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Costa Rica, Panama, Peru, Venezuela

Asia: China, Hong Kong, India, Japan, Malaysia, Singapore, South Korea, Thailand

Africa/Middle East: Israel, Jordan, South Africa

Pacific: Australia, New Zealand

All of the new destinations will be automatically included, as of today, in both the Free mobile plan (€19.99/month or €15.99/month for Freebox subscribers) and the €2 mobile plan (or €0/month for Freebox subscribers; subject to the 2 hours per month call-time limit applicable for the €2 plan), for existing and new subscribers.

See below for full list of destinations.

About Free

Free is the inventor of the Freebox, the first multiservice box on ADSL. Free is behind numerous innovations in the broadband access segment (VoIP, IPTV, flat-rate calling plans to multiple destinations, etc.). Free provides straightforward and innovative offerings at the best prices. At the end of 2010, Free introduced the Freebox Revolution, the 6th generation of Freebox units that notably includes an NAS and a Blu-Ray™ drive. Free was the first operator to include calls from landlines to mobile phones in its offerings and also calls to French overseas departments (DOM). Since January 2012, Free has brought mobile phone usage within everyone's reach with straightforward, no-contract offerings at very attractive prices. Free has over 5.5 million broadband subscribers and 7.4 million mobile subscribers (as at September 30, 2013).
